Getting To Know: Ethan Wiederkehr

In 2014 SWR suffered a tremendous loss when one of their players (Tom Cutinella) while making a hit passed away on the field. However the team decided to dedicate the rest of the season to the fallen player and they finished the season a perfect 12-0 and won the Class IV Long Island Championship. One of the key players on last year's team returns in DE/TE Ethan Wiederkehr who will be a junior for the 2015 season.

Ethan is already 6'5 250 and has offers from Rutgers, Maryland, Wake Forest, VPI and Syracuse. In 2014 he made 1st team All County, 2nd team All Long Island and 3rd team All New York State as he had 68 tackles/5 sacks/ 4 pass deflections/1 fumble recovery.

Ethan is also a very good basketball player as he was SWR 3rd leading scorer and was the Suffolk County Rookie of the Year. He has been on the Varsity Lacrosse team since his freshman year.

In the classroom Ethan has a 94.5 GPA. He is well liked by his teachers and his peers and believe it or not Ethan still hasn't hit his potential in his ability. He's still going to get bigger and mature and then watch out.
